Programs

PLAINS ART CASES

The Museum's Art Case program is designed to provide art education resources to classrooms in our region that have little or no formal art education in place. Each case is packed with a miniature exhibition of works by regional artists and comes with an education guide that encourages classroom participation. The cases are loaned for free and educators pay no shipping fees.

MUSEUM VISITS

Each year, about 10,000 people participate in gallery and studio experiences, led by Plains Art Museum Teaching Artists and our volunteer Plains Art Museum Guides. More than 8,000 of those visitors are Kindergarten through 5th grade students from area public and private schools, who enjoy a Gallery + Ceramics experience, which includes making art in our clay studio spaces in the Katherine Kilbourne Burgum Center for Creativity.

SCHOOL SPIRIT: YOUTH ART MONTH

In March, the Museum showcases the talents of Kindergarten through 12th grade art students from more than 40 schools to increase community awareness of regional arts programs and emphasize the value of the arts and self expression. The Museum also hosts an artists' reception for young area artists and their families, an exciting gathering of about 700 people that includes performances from the Fargo Moorhead Area Youth Symphonies and art-making activities.

KID QUEST

Kid Quest is a free, family program, held the first Saturday of the month from October through April. The event draws about 200 children and family members each month, offering them the opportunity to explore art in the galleries and then participate in creating an art project together at the Katherine Kilbourne Burgum Center for Creativity. Xcel Energy is the primary sponsor, with additional support from Minnesota Public Radio, and The Village Family Magazine.

INTERNET CAT VIDEO FESTIVAL

Fall 2014 held many high points for Plains Art Museum, including a sell-out show for the Internet Cat Video Festival. On September 4 the Mewseum presented the Walker Art Center's blockbuster, and partnered with Homeward Animal Shelter and the Fargo Theatrrr to bring the feline film phenomenon to Fargo.

CENTRAL TIME CENTRIC SYMPOSIUM

The Museum hosted Central Time Centric, a landmark symposium, on September 4-7, 2014. Socially engaged art has gained recent momentum, though it has long roots in community arts, social and political movements, feminist art, and more. For both artists and arts organizations, social engagement is a means to increase relevance, effect social change, and utilize the qualities of art and the skills and concerns of artists to engage the public and address community issues. Keynote speakers included: Christine Baessler, Jackie Brookner, Roger Cummings, Rick Lowe and Michael J. Strand.

Central Time Centric is supported in part by grants from the Bush Foundation's Community Innovation Program and the North Dakota Humanities Council, a nonprofit independent state partner of the National Endowment for the Humanities, and by co-sponsorships with the Fargo Theatre, Hotel Donaldson and the Department of Visual Arts, North Dakota State University. Any views, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed in the exhibit do not necessarily reflect those of the North Dakota Humanities Council or the National Endowment for the Humanities.

STUDIO CLASSES

Art-making classes for youth and adults offer opportunities for inquisitive people of all ages. Classes are held at the Katherine Kilbourne Burgum Center for Creativity, a multipurpose arts facility that also offers studio and exhibition space for learning, discussion, and display of creative work. Plains Art Museum's studio programs focus on developing people's potential for deeper learning and problem solving through 21st-century skills: creativity, collaboration, critical thinking, and communication. The Bradley J Burgum skybridge connects the original museum building with this 25,500 square foot expansion.

Held the first Saturday of May every year to raise money for Museum education programs through an evening of music, hors d'oeuvres, dancing, and an art auction.
