

PLAINS ART MUSEUM

Plains Art Museum Creative Artist Talk: Marcie Rendon

Press Release
For Immediate Release (October 2019)

Fargo, N.D. Plains Art Museum is excited to announce that it will host author, poet, and playwright Marcie Rendon as she speaks about her new novel, Girl Gone Missing. This free public program will be on Thursday October 24, 2019 from 6-7 pm in the Gate City Bank Presentation Center, located on the Museum's first floor. Girl Gone Missing is the second installation in Rendon's Cash Blackbear Mystery series, and takes place in Fargo and the surrounding region.

Marcie Rendon is an enrolled member of the White Earth Nation, and has published four nonfiction children's books and four published plays. Rendon is a recipient of the Loft's Spoken Word Immersion Fellowship in 2016-2017, and is a community arts activist who supports other Native artists/writers/creators to pursue their art.

Plains Art Museum is the largest art museum in the Dakotas and Western Minnesota and is general admission free thanks to strong and growing support from over 800 households and businesses. The Museum manages a permanent collection of over 4,000 objects, organizes and presents dozens of annual exhibitions, facilitates public art projects, and leads over 200 educational programs and experiences for all ages each year. The Museum, and its Katherine Kilbourne Burgum Center for Creativity, is located at 704 First Avenue North in downtown Fargo. For more information about visiting or supporting your art museum, visit www.plainsart.org.

Contact: Andrew J. Maus, Director & CEO, 701.551.6123, amaus@plainsart.org

704 First Avenue North
Fargo North Dakota
701.551.6100 • plainsart.org

