

PLAINS ART MUSEUM

Plains Art Museum Holds 6th Annual Holiday Art Sale

Press Release
For Immediate Release (November 2019)

Fargo, ND – Plains Art Museum will hold its sixth annual Holiday Art Sale on November 22 and 23 from 9:00 am – 5:00 pm on the Museum's third floor. The sale includes work from many select local and regional artists including jewelry prints, photography - with a primary focus on pottery and ceramics. Proceeds support participating artists and the Robert Kurkowski Ceramic Studio in the Center for Creativity. The Museum will also host a members-only port and chocolate preview party on Thursday November 21 from 7:00-9:00 pm. At the event, Museum members will get an exclusive first look at available artwork from the professional and emerging artists represented from throughout the region. Not a member? The port and chocolate tasting is open to all interested parties 21 and up for a $15 admission fee.

For more information email Netha Cloeter at ncloeter@plainsart.org or go to our website at plainsart.org.

Plains Art Museum is the largest art museum in the Dakotas and Western Minnesota and is general admission free thanks to strong and growing support from over 800 households and businesses. The Museum manages a permanent collection of over 4,000 objects, organizes and presents dozens of annual exhibitions, facilitates public art projects, and leads over 200 educational programs and experiences for all ages each year. The Museum, and its Katherine Kilbourne Burgum Center for Creativity, is located at 704 First Avenue North in downtown Fargo. For more information about visiting or supporting your art museum, visit www.plainsart.org.

Contact: Andrew J. Maus, Director & CEO, 701.551.6123, amaus@plainsart.org

704 First Avenue North
Fargo North Dakota
701.551.6100 • plainsart.org

