LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR

DEAR FRIENDS,

If I could summarize our fiscal year 2017 and 2018 with one word, it would be growth. This might sound like a general buzz-word, but I choose that word deliberately in its multiplicity of meanings. Growth as in growing something – like a garden. Growth as in literally more. Growth as in doing something that you have never done before. All of these apply.

THE GROWTH OF A GARDEN

In September of 2016, as we had just entered fiscal year 2017, Plains Art Museum announced the completion of the Heritage Garden & Amphitheater. This creative placemaking project was the result of the thoughtful inspiration, hard work and persistence of 3 artists – Rob Fischer (MN & NY), Kevin Johnson (NY), and Su Legatt (MN). The Garden is located in Woodlawn Park in Moorhead, MN, and pays homage to the history of the historic Woodlawn neighborhood by repurposing elements of the then-recently-torn-down power plant and exhibiting them as sculptures. These artworks are exhibited within garden beds featuring plants donated by neighborhood residents. The result is a functional space for casual visitors and for events like our 80's Movies Nights, and it is also a work of art.

GROWTH IN AUDIENCES & SUPPORT

Between 2016 and 2017, Plains Art Museum sought to become more accessible in a way that is innovative to other museums. Specifically, we wanted the Museum to become a community gathering place by eliminating general admission fees. Most museums do this through accessing tax-based support or through a large, singular sponsor. We had a different idea, which we call PlainsArt4All – a general fund of member and donor support which would make and keep the Museum general admission free. This fund would be coupled with an endowment to help ensure sustainability. After just one year of dropping this financial barrier, our audiences grew 37%, and with anticipation of further growth in the future. The Museum would like to thank every single member and donor who have helped us grow, as well as major sponsors like Bush Foundation, Mcknight Foundation, Julie Burgum, Bell Insurance, and our many other friends who help make our community great.

GROWTH THROUGH INNOVATION

During this same time, your art museum won the Bush Prize for Community Innovation – one of the largest and most prestigious grant awards in the region. This was awarded to the Museum due to our ability to use the arts to solve expressed community problems, like we did when we created the Katherine Kilbourne Burgum Center for Creativity and our program with Fargo Public Schools, or when we asked artists to create public garden spaces. Plains Art Museum is now a national leader in using the arts to solve problems and eliminate barriers to community participation.

Thank you for joining us in our growth as we lead Fargo to its future as a diverse and dynamic center for arts access, culture and arts education. If you joined us from one of the dozens of exhibitions that we presented, or some of the countless educational programs, we thank you for your participation. There are more inspiring experiences to come.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in red ink, which appears to read "Andy Maus". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal flourish at the end.

Andrew J. Maus,
Director & CEO

Plains Art Museum thanks our generous PlainsArt4All members and donors for their support of access to the Museum's exhibitions. Additional support provided by The McKnight Foundation, Bush Foundation, The Arts Partnership, The FUND at Plains Art Museum, and the North Dakota Council on the Arts, which receives funds from the North Dakota Legislature and the National Endowment for the Arts.

SELECT PROGRAMS, PROJECTS & INITIATIVES

PLAINS ART CASES

The Museum's Art Case program is designed to provide art education resources to classrooms in our region that have little or no formal art education in place. Each case is packed with a miniature exhibition of works by regional artists and comes with an education guide that encourages classroom participation. The cases are loaned for free and educators pay no shipping fees.

MUSEUM VISITS

Each year, about 10,000 people participate in gallery and studio experiences, led by Plains Art Museum Teaching Artists and our volunteer Plains Art Museum Guides. More than 5,000 of those visitors are Kindergarten through 5th grade students from area public and private schools, who enjoy a Gallery + Ceramics experience, which includes making art in our clay studio spaces in the Katherine Kilbourne Burgum Center for Creativity.

SCHOOL SPIRIT: YOUTH ART MONTH

In March, the Museum showcases the talents of Kindergarten through 12th grade art students from more than 40 schools to increase community awareness of regional arts programs and emphasize the value of the arts and self expression. The Museum also hosts an artists' reception for young area artists and their families, an exciting gathering of about 1,100 people that includes performances from the Fargo Moorhead Area Youth Symphonies and art-making activities.

KID QUEST

Kid Quest is a free, family program, held the first Saturday of the month from October through April. The event draws around 200 children and family members each month, offering them the opportunity to explore art in the galleries and then participate in creating an art project together at the Katherine Kilbourne Burgum Center for Creativity. Xcel Energy is the primary sponsor, with additional support from Minnesota Public Radio.

CREATIVITY AMONG NATIVE AMERICAN ARTISTS

Creativity Among Native American Artists involves Native American artists in programs and exhibitions at Plains Art Museum. It provides a Native American artist in residence program, engaging exhibitions, and multiple learning opportunities through workshops, artist talks, and professional development. In FY17/18, artists Jim Denomie, John Hitchcock and Keith BraveHeart served as artists in residence, and Native American exhibitions You Don't Have to Put a Feather on It, Arriving at Fresh Water: Contemporary Native Artists from Our Great Lakes, Indian Country: The Art of David Bradley, Honor the Earth, Lakota Emergence, The Horse Nation of the Očhéthi Šakówiŋ, The Buffalo in the American Living Room: Fritz Scholder and Contemporary Native Art and Flatlander: Belonging to the Land captivated audiences.

STUDIO CLASSES

Art-making classes for youth and adults offer opportunities for inquisitive people of all ages. Classes are held at the Katherine Kilbourne Burgum Center for Creativity, a multipurpose arts facility that also offers studio and exhibition space for learning, discussion, and display of creative work. Plains Art Museum's studio programs focus on developing people's potential for deeper learning and problem solving through 21st-century skills: creativity, collaboration, critical thinking, and communication. The Bradley J. Burgum skybridge connects the original museum building with this 25,500 square foot expansion.

OPEN STUDIO

Members are invited to work on ceramic projects during Open Studio hours offered four days a week in the Katherine Kilbourne Burgum Center for Creativity, in an atmosphere where people can come together to work on projects—experimenting, collaborating, and encouraging fellow artists.

SELECT PROGRAMS, PROJECTS & INITIATIVES

ART + AUTISM WORKSHOPS

All sessions are developed and instructed by Plains Art Museum Education Staff and Special Education professionals for families with children on the Autism Spectrum Disorder.

ART & BUSINESS BREAKFAST

This innovative program brings together Fargo-Moorhead-West Fargo business and cultural leaders. Through presentations, conversations, and activities, we explore shared connections and the potential for discovering, engaging, and expanding mutually beneficial relationships.

ART OF HOPE AND HEALING

Experience hope and healing through guided healing arts sessions. Open to individuals and families who have been impacted by substance abuse, Art of Hope and Healing workshops provide a safe and uplifting space to share and heal through gentle art activities led by a trained therapeutic arts facilitator.

LOW-SENSORY MONDAYS

We embrace the unique qualities of all who walk through our doors and appreciate that many visitors need to explore the Museum in different ways. For individuals and families who prefer a quiet, less sensory-stimulating environment we offer Low-Sensory Mondays on the first Monday afternoon of every month. At each event, loud gallery sounds and bright lights are turned down and attendance is limited.

HANNAHER'S INC. PRINT STUDIO

This space is designed as a place to explore the art of printmaking in all its various forms. The Museum is one of only a handful in the nation with a fully functional print studio.

THE GOLDBERG ART LOUNGE

In this hands-on learning space for all ages, visitors have the opportunity to learn in a relaxed environment through art activities, games, books.

NOON HOLIDAY CONCERTS

Held Monday through Thursday the first three weeks in December, Noon Holiday Concerts by the area's finest musicians take place in the beautiful Landfield Atrium. Sponsored by Minnesota Public Radio and hibu.

HERITAGE GARDEN & AMPHITHEATER

Designed by artists Su Legatt, Rob Fischer, and Kevin Johnson, the Heritage Garden & Amphitheater is located near the site of the decommissioned power plant along the Red River and adjacent to Woodlawn Park. The power plant provided power to Moorhead from 1896 until 2014, and was a central element to the Woodlawn Park neighborhood. The artists' plan has created an environment that serves as an homage to the power plant, the history of the neighborhood and its residents. Elements from the power plant are incorporated into landforms and garden beds, and serve as found sculptures. Residents from the neighborhood have contributed plants and their personal stories.

BUZZ LAB

Buzz Lab teen interns spent a week in June studying pollinators, tending to the Pollinator Garden at Plains Art Museum, and educating the community on the vital role pollinators play in our ecosystem.

ANNUAL SPRING GALA

Held the first Saturday of May every year to raise money for Museum education programs through an evening of music, hors d'oeuvres, dancing, and an art auction.

APPRECIATION FOR MUSEUM SUPPORT

The dedicated support of individuals, businesses, and foundations makes possible the achievement of Plains Art Museum's mission: to connect art, artists, and audiences to foster creative, resilient, and welcoming communities.

We thank everyone who supported the Museum during fiscal years 2017/18!
