LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR

DEAR FRIENDS,

Through the visionary work of artists – converging with the creativity and capacity of curators and educators – art museums often show us possibilities. These possibilities manifest in experiences with artworks that allow us to humanize, understand, empathize, or be challenged to think or feel in new ways.

If I could summarize the work of dozens of exhibitions and hundreds of educational programs over a two-year period at Plains Art Museum in one word, it would be that one – possibilities. For example, is it possible for public art to be a simple act of temporary imagination? In the fall of 2018, this possibility became a reality when Plains Art Museum partnered with artist Kurt Perschke, Minnesota State University Moorhead and the City of Fargo's Arts & Culture Commission to host the artist's acclaimed work, RedBall Project in sites across the metro. Moreover, if you experienced your museum's exhibitions like The Other Four in the summer and fall of 2019 – an exhibition that featured contemporary artworks that are sensory but primarily non-visual – you know what I mean when I talk about how art experiences can affect people. Or, if you attended Liza Sylvestre's gallery talk, which was a part of her exhibition Third Space, where she took participants on a blindfolded tour of our galleries, you also know what I mean. There are some experiences that can only be had in or through an art museum.

It was during this time of exploring possibilities that the Museum also imagined the future of Fargo-Moorhead by organizing focus groups that connected some of Fargo-Moorhead's most visionary leaders with equally visionary architects from Olson Kundig. That future has a vision through the creation of a facility masterplan for Plains Art Museum, and in the coming years we will work to fulfill it. It will be possible for Fargo-Moorhead to be a nation-wide leader in arts access and arts education.

It is impossible to talk about a time period such as this without discussing the transformational year of 2020. In the spring of 2020, we all know what happened – the Covid pandemic forced closures around the world, including Plains Art Museum. This closure effectively cut short a major exhibition of works on paper by Salvador Dalí. The devastation was far and wide, but rather than sit and wait to see what would happen, we got to work planning for the future. Is it possible for museums to engage the public in virtual classes and exhibitions? It turns out – yes. Is it possible for Plains Art Museum to start and sustain one or more podcasts? Yep. Can virtual events, programs and content help people cope with loneliness, reinvigorate a sense of creativity, and help us find beauty in the ugliness of trauma? Also yes.

When you support your art museum, you are supporting what people need to thrive – creativity, problem solving skills, empathy and community. For going along on this journey of possibilities with us, we cannot thank you enough. In the following pages, our astounding output – hundreds of programs, public art and engagement projects, quality acquisitions to our permanent collection, and dozens of exhibitions can be seen.

Sincerely,

Director & CEO

SELECT PROGRAMS, PROJECTS & INITIATIVES

THE REDBALL PROJECT

North Carolina-based artist Kurt Perschke's acclaimed work, the RedBall Project, is a 15 foot sculptural installation traveling around the world, adopting cities as its canvas. Through a simple act of imagination, Perschke squeezes and places the RedBall in imaginative locations to draw attention to our built environment and history, and disrupt our daily routines. From October 4th through 10th 2018 the RedBall was found in public locations around Fargo and Moorhead (see cover image). Supported by the Fargo Arts & Culture Commission, Minnesota State University Moorhead, Plains Art Museum, Fargo Park District, Insight to Action/Carol Schlossman Consulting, Fargo-Moorhead Convention & Visitors Bureau.

PLAINS ART CASES

The Museum's Art Case program is designed to provide art education resources to classrooms in our region that have little or no formal art education in place. Each case is packed with a miniature exhibition of works by regional artists and comes with an education guide that encourages classroom participation. The cases are loaned for free and educators pay no shipping fees.

MUSEUM VISITS

Each year, about 10,000 people participate in gallery and studio experiences, led by Plains Art Museum Teaching Artists and our volunteer Plains Art Museum Guides. More than 5,000 of those visitors are Kindergarten through 5th grade students from area public and private schools, who enjoy a Gallery + Ceramics experience, which includes making art in our clay studio spaces in the Katherine Kilbourne Burgum Center for Creativity.

SCHOOL SPIRIT: YOUTH ART MONTH

In March, the Museum showcases the talents of Kindergarten through 12th grade art students from more than 40 schools to increase community awareness of regional arts programs and emphasize the value of the arts and self expression. The Museum also hosts an artists' reception for young area artists and their families, an exciting gathering of about 1,100 people that includes performances from the Fargo Moorhead Area Youth Symphonies and art-making activities.

KID QUEST

Kid Quest is a free, family program, held the first Saturday of the month from October through April. The event draws around 200 children and family members each month, offering them the opportunity to explore art in the galleries and then participate in creating an art project together at the Katherine Kilbourne Burgum Center for Creativity. Xcel Energy is the primary sponsor, with additional support from Minnesota Public Radio.

CREATIVITY AMONG NATIVE AMERICAN ARTISTS

Creativity Among Native American Artists involves Native American artists in programs and exhibitions at Plains Art Museum. It provides a Native American artist in residence program, engaging exhibitions, and multiple learning opportunities through workshops, artist talks, and professional development. In FY19/20, artists John Hitchcock, Anna Johnson and Athena LaTocha served as artists in residence, and Native American exhibitions Lakota Emergence, John Hitchcock: Protectors, Flatlander: Belonging to the Land, Bring Her Home: The Stolen Daughters of Turtle Island, Waasamoo-Beshizi, Layer by Layer: Recent Works by Anna Johnson, Athena LaTocha: Buffalo Prairie (Slow Burn), Brad Kahlhamer: A Nation of One, Responsibilities and Obligations: Understanding Mitákuye Oyás'in and She Gives captivated audiences.

STUDIO CLASSES

Art-making classes for youth and adults offer opportunities for inquisitive people of all ages. Classes are held at the Katherine Kilbourne Burgum Center for Creativity, a multipurpose arts facility that also offers studio and exhibition space for learning, discussion, and display of creative work. Plains Art Museum's studio programs focus on developing people's potential for deeper learning and problem solving through 21st-century skills: creativity, collaboration, critical thinking, and communication. The Bradley J. Burgum skybridge connects the original museum building with this 25,500 square foot expansion.

OPEN STUDIO

Members are invited to work on ceramic projects during Open Studio hours offered four days a week in the Katherine Kilbourne Burgum Center for Creativity, in an atmosphere where people can come together to work on projects—experimenting, collaborating, and encouraging fellow artists.

SELECT PROGRAMS, PROJECTS & INITIATIVES

ART + AUTISM WORKSHOPS

All sessions are developed and instructed by Plains Art Museum Education Staff and Special Education professionals for families with children on the Autism Spectrum Disorder.

ART & BUSINESS BREAKFAST

This innovative program brings together Fargo-Moorhead-West Fargo business and cultural leaders. Through presentations, conversations, and activities, we explore shared connections and the potential for discovering, engaging, and expanding mutually beneficial relationships.

ART OF HOPE AND HEALING

Experience hope and healing through guided healing arts sessions. Open to individuals and families who have been impacted by substance abuse, Art of Hope and Healing workshops provide a safe and uplifting space to share and heal through gentle art activities led by a trained therapeutic arts facilitator.

LOW-SENSORY MONDAYS

We embrace the unique qualities of all who walk through our doors and appreciate that many visitors need to explore the Museum in different ways. For individuals and families who prefer a quiet, less sensory-stimulating environment we offer Low-Sensory Mondays on the first Monday afternoon of every month. At each event, loud gallery sounds and bright lights are turned down and attendance is limited.

HANNAHER'S INC. PRINT STUDIO

This space is designed as a place to explore the art of printmaking in all its various forms. The Museum is one of only a handful in the nation with a fully functional print studio.

THE GOLDBERG ART LOUNGE

In this hands-on learning space for all ages, visitors have the opportunity to learn in a relaxed environment through art activities, games, books.

NOON HOLIDAY CONCERTS

Held Monday through Thursday the first three weeks in December, Noon Holiday Concerts by the area's finest musicians take place in the beautiful Landfield Atrium. Sponsored by Minnesota Public Radio and hibu.

PROGRESSIVE ARCHITECTURE DINNER

Guests are invited to tour up to four architecturally unique homes in Fargo-Moorhead and its surrounding region. Each house features a different dinner course. Proceeds benefit the Museum's PlainsArt4All initiative, keeping the Museum general admission free, enabling arts access for all.

CERAMIC POP-UP

This event features ceramicists from all over the country in two-week long virtual auction. Proceeds benefit PlainsArt4All, keeping the Museum general admission free, enabling arts access for all.

HERITAGE GARDEN & AMPHITHEATER

Designed by artists Su Legatt, Rob Fischer, and Kevin Johnson, the Heritage Garden & Amphitheater is located near the site of the decommissioned power plant along the Red River and adjacent to Woodlawn Park. The power plant provided power to Moorhead from 1896 until 2014, and was a central element to the Woodlawn Park neighborhood. The artists' plan has created an environment that serves as an homage to the power plant, the history of the neighborhood and its residents. Elements from the power plant are incorporated into landforms and garden beds, and serve as found sculptures. Residents from the neighborhood have contributed plants and their personal stories.

BUZZ LAB

Buzz Lab teen interns spent a week in June studying pollinators, tending to the Pollinator Garden at Plains Art Museum, and educating the community on the vital role pollinators play in our ecosystem.

ANNUAL SPRING GALA

Held annually on the first Saturday of May, the Museum's largest fundraiser raises money for its education programs. It features live music, hors d'oeuvres, as well as the area's largest wine tasting and art auction.
